The Guidelines for allocating Qld Circuit Racing State Championship Competition Numbers

The application of an annual competition number is for competitors entering the Queensland Circuit Racing State Championship of that year.

No fees apply to this application.

An annual competition number will only be allocated to holders of a current Motorsport Australia Circuit Licence or Competitor Licence and who hold a Motorsport Australia vehicle log book.

Allocations are valid from 1 January to 31 December of each year.

All numbers allocated will be declared “available” after the 31 December of each year except when the “number holder” has applied for the following year’s allocation prior to 31 December of that year.

Only single or double digit numbers will be allocated.

Number’s commencing with ‘0’ are not permitted.

Preference will be given to a national allocated number or a number of historical significance. These will be considered on an individual basis.

Numbers will be allocated for the vehicle categories listed in the current years Qld Circuit Racing State Championship Sporting Regulations published on the Motorsport Australia website at <https://motorsport.org.au/regulations/sporting-technical/queensland>

Event Organiser’s reserve the right to change the Qld allocated number at their sole discretion.
